MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

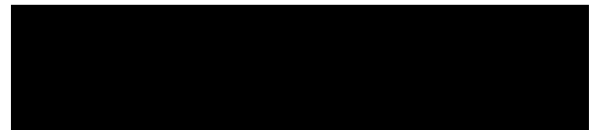

SUBJECT: Weekly Report #13: Defense Intelligence School (DIS)
7 June - 11 June 1965

1. Until the Civilian Analyst and the Strategic Intelligence Courses open in late June and early July, respectively, Agency speakers will not be required at DIS.

2. This interim period has afforded me opportunity to work more closely with the Attaché class, including my attending very worthwhile visits to the Coast Guard Yard at Curtis Bay and to the Bethlehem Steel plant at Sparrows Point. This field trip, which includes four other industrial sites as well, is conducted with a minimum of note-taking so that observation and memory play a big part in the exercise.

3. Three representatives of the American Council on Education completed a survey of the Defense Intelligence Course last week. The survey was requested by DIA to ascertain the amount of "graduate" credit which might be given for the 34-week course. It is believed that the graduate dean's committee will recommend 0-3 semester hours equivalent; "no" graduate credit seems most likely. Surveys like this are unnecessary for allocating undergraduate credit; the decision in each case rests with the undergraduate institution concerned.

4. Agency speakers in support of July programs have been lined up without much difficulty. I'm running into some problems on the support requested for August, but thus far the schedule modifications have proved satisfactory as a means of resolving the problems.
